JOHNSON C. SMITH UNIVERSITY

This says it all. This was placed along with a matching one on both sides of Beatties Ford Road. They herald the beginning of entrance of the school and enhance the natural beauty of the campus.

SANDERS HALL

Built on the Campus' West Side Sanders is a residence hall for women. It was built at the same time during the administration of Rufus P. Perry, that four other buildings were erected.

THE UNIVERSITY MEMORIAL UNION

This is THE most travelled place of any building on campus. Catering to not only students but faculty and staff. It has many functions such as dances, meetings, parties, weddings, receptions, seminars, speakers and the list goes on. Run by the indominable Mrs. Crisp the Union has been the focal point of the campus for years. It houses the University bookstore, the Post Office and the Dining Hall known far and wide as the 'cafe'. It also has a canteen for food services until the late night munchies are stopped.

JACK S. BRAYBOY GYMNASIUM

Named for the prolific coach and Director of Athletics Brayboy is renown as one of the hardest gyms for any basketball team to defeat our Golden Bulls. Sports Magazine said that it was the roudius place in the south and the Charlotte Observer called it "The Madhouse" and we love to live up to that reputation.

LISTON HALL

The second largest dorm on campus houses over 250 male freshmen. It was built during the great expansion period of the mid-sixties.

HUMANITIES BUILDING

As of yet the not named Humanities Building houses the English and Foreign Language Dept. The ground breaking was in October 1985 and the dedication will be soon in the Spring semester of '87. This building joins the long line of impressive edifices on our campus.

BIDDLE HALL

Biddle Hall is the oldest standing building on our campus. It was the original school building used by Rev. S.C. Alexander and Rev. Willis L. Miller the co-founders of the University. This building has been declared a historical landmark.

THE CARNEGIE BLDG.

This building began its service as the schools library. After the school began expanding in the Sixties it was converted into its present use, Financial Aid and Placement.

SCIENCE HALL

Often called the Old Science Hall this building was one of the many that was erected when Mrs. Johnson C. Smith donated hundreds of thousands of dollars to the then Biddle Institute.

CARTER HALL

Carter Hall, which is now presently a male dormitory, is the oldest dorm on this campus. It is still one of the largest and is renown as 'Animal House' and 'Castle Grey Skull'. This building like Biddle Hall has been declared a historial landmark.

McCROREY HALL

This building named after a citizen in South Carolina was the original housing unit of the theological seminary. Since the phasing out of the seminary it was used by Communications and Urban Studies, Sociology and Drama.

W. GREENFIELD HALL

Named for the predessesor to Dr. Albright, this is the newest of the dormitories. When built it was the first coed dorm built by any black college in the Southeast. It now houses over 400 women and has a library, computer room, conference areas, and a typing room.

JOHNSON C. SMITH UNIVERSITY

To The Class of 1987:

Just four short years ago, we entered Johnson C. Smith University together; you as our entering freshman class and I as President of the University. Hence, it should be no surprise or secret that I feel a very special kinship with the class of 1987, for in every imaginable way you are my "first class" of graduates. Over the years, we have witnessed, experienced and presided over many changes at our university – and your class, the class of 1987, have been the important architects and living examples of what we so proudly proclaimed as our New Era of Excellence.

Clearly, Smith has grown and prospered since you arrived on the campus in August, 1983. You were an important part of our phenomenal $8,000,000 Capital Campaign; you observed the construction and opening of Greenfield Hall and our new Humanities Building, you were the first class of seniors to occupy our new Banking Center; you benefited directly from the renovation of Duke, Smith, Carter and Myers Halls; and, you will one day be able to proudly proclaim to your children and grandchildren that you were a student at JCSU when the restoration of Biddle Hall began. Indeed, you will have many fond and glorious memories of the days you spent at Alma Mater – and I hope that you will someday recognize and appreciate the many things we have been able to accomplish together at a time when the future of many of the nation's Historically black Colleges is questionable.

I have little doubt that our very fine faculty has prepared you well for the future. You have survived a very rigorous academic experience and you are, quite frankly, among the best educated students in the country today. However, I sincerely hope that Johnson C. Smith University has given you more than just a good education and the means to acquire economic security and personal fulfillment for the future. I hope that we have instilled in you an almost arrogant sense of confidence about your abilities, a love for Alma Mater, a sense of pride in being a graduate of this historic institution, and a recognition of your responsibility to the community which made it possible for you to achieve your educational goals.

I wish you all much success in the future. You are our brightest and our best. You are the best hope of our community and the nation for providing the kind of unique sensitivity, intellectual skills and deep commitment for insuring genuine equality of opportunity for all of our citizens.

May God speed you on your way – and may you ever be true to the "DEAR OLD GOLD AND BLUE."

With deepest respect, affection and appreciation, I am

Very sincerely yours,

Robert L. Albright

"What can I say? I'm the best dancer around. I hope that you don't think I'm conceited because I'm the best. After all it's your fault you asked me to dance. Oh, by the way have I thanked all the little people that made this possible. . . .

Athena. Isis. Lady of the Lake. Shelena Winifred. All names of goddesses of beauty. You must admit that she's a long way from old stone face. If Medusa can turn men to stone, Wini's smile can turn them back or at least make life as a rock a little more bearable.

FRIENDLY OLE VICKI BELL

Large Green Angel Vicki's one of the friendly people [illegible] Vicki [illegible] in [illegible] Vicki [illegible] summer [illegible] after [illegible] to [illegible] for [illegible]

THERESA, MOST POPULAR

Everybody knows Theresa, but we wanted see is popular or [illegible] she's Miss JCSU. It's because of that centerfold on page 116. Theresa you have no worries, even after graduation [illegible] your success as a broadcaster, we could not guarantee you such true picture.

ALVIS KNOWS SILENCE IS A VIRTUE

A [illegible] picture. There's for the most quiet-cool man in the senior class. He is awaiting to choose about [illegible] and [illegible]. So he's [illegible] look before he quietly takes his [illegible].

TERRY DOES IT HER WAY

Harper's Bazaar? Glamour? Vogue? No. It's Terry doing what she does best. . . . Anne Terry. Her zoom to success hasn't altered her. She has won just about every talent contest (except the Carson Salem Show) in high school in Winston-Salem and that's because she didn't enter. If you don't know that she is the most talented female and the most likely to be famous you've had your head in a fridge.

TREEEEVE

Mozart in the making? Yes! If he wrote class rap anything is as with it. Trevor's Mont Clair is continuing the bad thing under the mountain of the Mason jar. Today Smith, tomorrow maybe. . . . Carson

THAT'S JUST TOO MUCH COMING BACK

No he's not performing some Satanic ritual or even reacting the crucifixion. He's just being non-conformist. As usual. This R.R. (Rasheda's kinda) has left a devastating wake of reincarnation rubble in his path, one of which Shirley McLaine would be proud. If you haven't been acquainted with his views on organized religion by the time we get through you won't know what to believe.

THEY TALK TOO MUCH THEY NEVER SHUT UP

Yes, this is LaShun and Daryl, the Loquacious Duo. We know they have lots to talk about after Terence's dizzate picture, but that's just it. They won't stop! Can you see the very reason why Daryl won. If you had a mouth like that you'd win most talkative too. Don't think LaShun can't let loose either.

DANNY, DANNY HE'S OUR MAN

Is this the president of Chase Manhattan or of Mechanics & Farmer's even. Not But he does have enough senior superlatives to open a small Swiss bank account: 1) most popular 2) most likely to be famous 3) best all-around. If he had a dollar bill for all these categories he could pay more than 75% of his bill at validation.

WHO SAYS YOU CAN'T HAVE EVERYTHING

Who said you can't have brains and beauty? Well this studious brunette bombshell proves that you can. Don't think that just because she keeps her pretty little nose in a book that she'll be a Librarian. We all know that once she puts those books down every guy in town will want to "check her out". But her reply: "You don't even know the Dewey Decimal System."

The Fall from Grace (in this case Gwen) came quickly. As soon as this Minister of Ministers (or if you prefer this Bodacious Bozo) heard that he had won not only Miss Gwen BUT most outrageous he dashed (or as you see dropped) to the waiting crowd (Gwen, who happened to be on her way to a revival) When asked about his sudden trip he said "It's really a step down for me."

Good God! Should we say God's good as we behold the body BEAUTIFUL? Rather, would have lived in ancient Pompeii we see why Vesuvius blew his top. This cosmopolitan cutie, this sensual senior this gem of the Middle East may pulsate but beware lurking behind that pretty face is a pretty mind. A calculating cerebrum that only adds to the beauty not detracts. How do know why that Philadelphia Cheese creamed

Like a bee out of honey she swarm. This giant of a girl with the diminutive nickname. Part Annie Lennox part "The Feminist & the Fool" part "Porter-girl" part "I Wrote Poems at Nurses" and part "Benetton" this hodgepodge of Western day pop art has outlaged men's a person who's sitting tight on this pinnacle. A caution to contentment. But remember! novelties don't die they just are up to be sold as a fine matter.

Guess it's over, call it a day Sorry that it had to end this way, But no reason to pretend We knew it had to end, but it's over Yes it's over Yes it's over the kicks are gone. What's the use of trying to hang on To whatever chance we try Let's face it, why deny. Too much too little too late to Ever try again. We're in the Middle of ending something That we knew was over. Yes it's over Dedicated to the Senior Class

Dedicated to Cynthia Thorne

Dear Cynthia,

In my mind I see a picture
Of a time when we were friends.
I see your smile, and hear your laughter
As though it were only a moment ago.
You dance in and out of my life daily
With ivy in your hair and candles at your feet.
You are twining around and around
In a mysterious dance, and you beckon to me
With outstretched arms that I might follow
Your beauty, which captivates me.
But always, as I grow closer,
You seem to glide further away.
But I know that you will always be there —
Waiting for me in eternity.

Love,
Ella

We knew you for only a minute,
But the hours we shared can never be replaced.
Love and Friendship, Love and Sisterhood
Oh, what wonderful lessons you taught us!
We can never fully close/that wonderful chapter of our lives
of which you were such a part
Our goodbyes are not forever
We know that one day again
We will . . .
Laugh

Care
and Love — Just as before.

In Memory of Anthony "Tick" McClam

God has called you home my love to dwell in his gates of gold. The pain will ease as time prevails and I will become strong again.

But the love we shared and the time we spent will remain locked in my heart forever. Your personality is the mecca of love, understanding, patience, and ambition to life and friends.

You're safe now to roam about like a child again, no more worries of this world, but a world that God has prepared for us. You are the sign and symbol that we love, but God loves you best.

My Love for You Will Never Die

BEHOLD THE BLUE AND THE GOLD

This year the Johnson C. Smith Marching Golden Bulls had a tremendous season. Performing crowd pleasing dancing and imaginative formations this year's band can truly be called Genius. Though the band was small in comparison to some others, the members took on each school with the same enthusiasm, and it showed. When our BAND marched on the field thats when all other competition stopped.

JCSU FUNK

The air was filled with the electrical charge of the crowd coming to its feet and simutaneously chanting: BEHOLD THE BLUE AND THE GOLD! Under the proud direction of the new band director Duncan Gray, JCSU was known all over the country as THE band to march against. Good work Band.

Kim Jones performs a modern dance for the Queen.

Danny Harrison and Belinda Jackson sing a duet.

LaShun, Theresa, Karmen, Gloria; the summit of beauty. Goddesses from Mt. Olympus.

The Ladies of the Hour: Theresa and Karmen.

CORONATION

Theresa Crunkleton, our queen, gives thanks to those who mean much to her. She reigned over this year's coronation with poise and elegance.

Miss JCSU choose for a theme this year "To the Limits of Imagination" this coencideded with the ovrall Homecoming theme "Pieces of the Dream."

Their Royal Highnesses leave the stage as the University President, Dr. Robert L. Albright, gives his remarks.

MISS J's

Look at the lovely Miss JCSU as she takes out from her reception to survey the scene.

The elegant evening was highlighted as the queen was seranated with song.

Theresa is flanked by her family.

RECEPTION

Come on guys don't smile so hard besides you'd better get in line.

Malcolm and the petit Kim Miss AKA.

"Tick", LaShun, Annie, and the Reverend.

Good grief Sharon and Trina, we know you don't get food like this in the cafe but slow DOWN!

BU

After a busy week of homecoming activities Dr. Bernard Franklin presents the Class Spirited Award to the victorious Sophomore class.

Everyone took part in the festivities which showcased the talents of our dynamic JCSU cheerleaders as the performed tantilizing cheers and stunts.

Homecoming: "It was a good occasion for the people to come together."

"This made for a very spectacular JCSU homecoming."

Homecoming: "My senior year's homecoming . . . HA! What a laugh!"

"I feel that even though we had a few problems we still had a pretty good time."

Homecoming: "I feel this year's homecoming was a reflection of the rainy day and the tragic ordeal of the week. The school spirit was low."

"As a freshman, I thought Homecoming was going to be wild! I did enjoy myself but I am really looking forward to a WILD time at the HOMECOMINGS of the future."

Alpha Kappa Alpha is the oldest Greek-letter organization established in America by Black college women. It is a significant and inspiring reflection of the development of a minority group in a changing culture.

Alpha Kappa Alpha was founded in 1908 at Howard University located in Washington DC. In its earliest days, Alpha Kappa Alpha became a symbol of the aspirations of able young women to develop their full potentials in an atmosphere of friendship & mutually supportive stimulation to excellence.

Gamma Delta Chapter consists of women from various economic backgrounds bound by a powerful mystique. This chapter is united through love, strength and trust. It is truly sisterhood, one to cherrish throughout a lifetime.

ALPHA PHI ALPHA FRATERNITY, INC.

Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. was founded December 7, 1906, at Cornell University, Ithica, NY. Alpha Omicron is the oldest chapter in the state of North Carolina, being founded on May 4, 1923. The men of Alpha Omicron Chapter truly uphold the aims and ideals of Alpha Phi Alpha.

These gentlemen are actively involved in Student Government, Residential Life and various organizations on, as well as, off campus. These distinctive men represent leadership, scholastic achievement and a love for all mankind. Their tenacious qualities stand above all others.

Their ability to hold the award for the highest G. P. A. nationally. In Alphaland this truly proves their committment to excellence.

DELTA SIGMA THETA

Delta Sigma Theta was founded January 13, 1913 by 22 remarkable women on the campus of Howward University in Washington, D.C.

The very first chapter was named Alpha Chapter. The objective of the sorority is to establish and maintain a high standard of morality and scholarship amoung women.

On February 19, 1944 the Gamma Lambda Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta was organized with eleven Charter members. Today Gamma Lambda tries to uphold the ideals of their initial founders.

Zeta Phi Beta Sorority was organized at Howard University on January 16, 1920, as the result of the encouragement given the five founders by Charles Robert Taylor and Langston Taylor, members of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity.

Zeta has been outstanding in carrying its share of community relief work in participation in voluntary services and life member of N.A.A.C.P. Thus, Zeta Phi Beta Sorority Inc. and Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity Inc. became the first official Greek-letter sister and brother organizations.

Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, an organization dedicated to scholarship, service, sisterly love, and finer womanhood have brought together women from all parts of the country.

Serendipity! That was the key to this year's annual. Discoveries and not all of them enjoyable. I chose this path that I walk and the bed of coals that I treaded over I would not wish on anyone. The enemies I've made and friends that I found. To put the experience of this concised six months would fill a book. But unfortunately you the consumer of our work, will probably not want to here me lament over calamities and hardships. I know that all you want is the product that we so lovingly produced. I can truly say that this has literally been the worst year of my life, a culmination if you will of the malestrom I feel I've weathered here at Johnson C. Smith, ah, but that is another tragic tale I'm sure you don't want to hear. I guess what I'm trying to say in this confused collection of prose is that even though there has been tribulation galore (and GOD knows) that I would run down this arduous road again. I am bitter some may think, I am, maybe, but I am glad that I had the chance to learn to be ME and to live for no one else.

I must thank some very important people that helped me in this endeavor. My mother, Mrs. Gwendolyn Stewart (Thank you Moma, I love you), my mentor Dr. P.T. Radcliffe (Thank you very much) my advisors Mrs. Joyce Schuler, Mr. Herber Gidney, Mrs. Johnlemae Flowers and Mrs. Nona Brewington, my most devoted staff members: Kyle Daniels, Roger Williams, Bill Rohlsen, and Kathy McKenzie, Ivy Jones, and my dearest friends: Terence Powers, Mitchell Sharpe, Gwendolyn Leverett, and Deedra Wright.

Thank You

Daryl T. Sturgis
Editor 1987 Bull

Serving on the Yearbook Staff for two years has definitely been an experience.

I will never forget. This production of the "Bull" has brought about a great deal of challenge and frustration for the entire staff. We have had to overcome various obstacles including budget cuts, photo sessions, lack of commitment and inclement weather conditions just to name a few. However we perservered and here you have our version of the "Bull" '87.

Many of us may never assemble together after we leave here so we have provided us with a keepsake I'm sure you will cherish and remember so fondly our Alma Mater.

I'd like to thank my photographers: Jason Green, Jessie Gore, Demetrius Hodges, and Mike Worthy.

I will remember you ALWAYS

Kathryn

ALIVE AND WELL

"Zooman and the Sign" was originally produced off Broadway in New York City. The same author who wrote "Zooman" wrote the award winning "A Soldier Play". The play "Zooman" received an Obie an award given to off Broadway productions.

"Zooman" is a taunt drama about the murder of a young girl in a Philadelphia slum and the days after her death. The family is slowly destroyed as they try to convince several of their neighbors to speak to the police, of course to no avail. Finally in frustration the father hangs a sign on his porch that eventually leads to more violence and in the shattering climax causes the death of the youth that shot his daughter.

"Lysistrata" is an ancient Greek comedy. To further help it to relate the JCSU Theatre reset the comedy in West Africa. The premise that it is set on is that the men of Kumbi Saleh are fighting the tribe of Walata. The women of both tribes come together and decide not to have sex with their husbands until the men stop fighting. All the women, led by Lysistrata, hold up in the temple. The ensuing days later find the spurned men in a state of agony and confusion. In the end peace and love win out when the men stop fighting and the women return to their husbands.

The Cast of the play "Zooman and the Sign" by Charles Fuller: Dr. Charlotte D'Armond, Director, Anton Davis — Victor Tate, Trevon Hampton — Music, James Scott — Emmette Tate, Reggie McNeely — Zooman, Terri Henry — Rachel Tate, Spencer Tukes — Rueben Tate, Lori Gavin — Grace, Daryl T. Sturgis — Mr. Jackson/-Asst. Director, Stanzi Hunter — Brick Thrower, Estelle Bowers — Ash Boswell, Natalie Hobbs — Lights, Lisa Bronson — Tech, Sean Johnson — Lights/Sound/Photos

BLACK COLLEGE DAY

Students from JCSU and other historically black colleges from all over North Carolina converged on the state capital in the month of October. The reason was the annual Black College Day. Our own S.G.A. President Danniel Harrison represented this school as did an entire bus load that went down for the march. The activities began on the campus of Shaw University and culminated at the steps of the state capitol. The celebration both stress brotherhood and a continued awareness of the problems the black school is facing now and in the future.

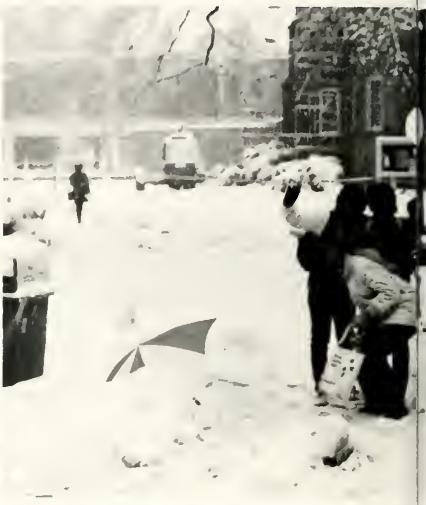
JCSU THE WINE



It was the worst blizzard in recent JCSU history. Smithites took it in stride.

The Freshmen chat happily as they go to yet another Freshman Orientation program.
Dr. Robert Albright, The University President, speaks to the Freshmen in the chapel.
Catherine Adams is elated that she is able to meet Dr. Allbright.
Freshmen walking from a program at the chapel.
Freshmen listen attentively as they are told more information about their future at JCSU.

These Freshman girls smile prettily for the camera.
Freshmen wine and dine at the dinner in their honor.
Does the Freshman class look like they can party?

To you ole JC Smith, we sing this ode:
We're so glad that we had this TIME TOGETHER;
Just to have a laugh or sing a song, but before
You know it comes the come we have to say SO LONG.

It was once written that the moving hand writes, and having written, moves on. We are like that, we enter this hollowed halls mere youths, full of zeal and naivete. We leave with your thought and edicts echoing in our ears. Your voice like a siren, has lured us here and we have heard the song of education. As we know part to go and become what it is we are to become, that is but one phrase that we must sigh as we leave your bosom . . .

WE LOVE THEE SMITH WITH ALL OUR HEARTS
